CONSIDER YOURSELF HAVING WON THE COLLEGE LOTTERY

If you're a student at a Harrison School District 2 high school or charter school, you could attend Pikes Peak Community College for free starting with the high school graduation class of 2020.

Starting in the fall 2020 semester, the Dakota Promise Scholarship ensures that all qualifying students from District 2 can attend PCC without paying tuition and fees. The scholarship can even help to cover the cost of books and supplies. Students will also receive direct support from an academic coach.

For more information, visit ppcc.edu/dakota.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Attend a Harrison School District 2 high school or charter school for at least one full year prior to graduating
- Earn a minimum 2.5 high school GPA (cumulative, or junior/senior year GPA)
- Enroll at PPCC within one year of graduating from high school
- Apply for Financial Aid: Students need to first apply for financial aid programs available to all students. Those funds, if awarded, will be used first. Additional funds to cover tuition and fees will be covered by the Dakota Promise Scholarship.

To continue to receive the Dakota Promise Scholarship, students must:

- Complete a minimum of 24 credit hours each academic year at PPCC
- Stay above a 2.0 GPA at PPCC
- Continue to apply for financial aid each academic year
