

Middle School Announcements

Good morning, James Irwin students! Let's begin today by stating our student-mission statement and pillars together. What is the student mission, everyone: Character, Scholarship, Leadership. And what are the 5 pillars of James Irwin, everyone: honesty, integrity, respect, responsibility, and excellence.

Students- Open your planner to Thursday, August 15, to record any information you find useful.

- Tomorrow is Red Polo Day. All students must be in their red polo shirt tomorrow.
- Monday 7th graders will be going to Ponderosa. If you are not attending camp you will stay home. 8th graders will be going to camp on Tuesday.
- Next week we kick off our Bogo Blue Fundraiser! This will be your chance to earn money for student activities and also win some great prizes!
- All students will need a PE uniform before Monday, August 19.
- Attention NJHS members, there is an NJHS meeting Wednesday, August 21, in Miss Wigand's room B103. Please be on time, doors will lock at 3:37. If you have any questions or concerns, please see Miss Wigand or Ms. Long.
- Students, homework help club starts on Tuesday, September 3. You may come for extra support or to have a quiet place to do homework before you get home!
- Today is a Red Day.
- This afternoon's carline staff members are Miss Carlin-Matthews, Miss Claar, Mrs. Glosup, Mrs. Wagner, and Mr. Schilling.
- Please stand and join me for the Pledge of Allegiance.

Teachers, please do a dress code check while the students remain standing.
