As a public charter school James Irwin is required to administer the state tests: CMAS (Colorado Measure of Academic Success); and/or Colorado Alternate (CoAlt), PSAT 8/9, PSAT10, and SAT.

I understand that by refusing the state mandated tests there will be no negative consequences imposed on my student by the school. I also understand that school attendance is required during the testing window and that alternative educational activities will be available for all students who will not be testing. By signing below, I indicate my desire to refuse state testing for my student.

Reason for Refusal:

COVID-19 Level of stress on student Unreliable test results
